*Policy Statement of the Arkansas League of Artists

The Arkansas League of Artists has the following policy concerning pornography, profanity, and graphic depictions of violence in submitted artwork. Although tasteful works of nudity are allowed in the ALA monthly competitions, whether they are accepted for exhibit is at the discretion of the individual venues. In the ALA Members' Show, the ALA Art Show and the ALA Winners' Show, what is acceptable as far as nudity and profanity will be addressed in the prospectus of each individual show and according to the rules of the venue of each show. However, no artwork that is pornographic or includes offensive language or graphic depictions of violence will be accepted. This applies to all other ALA sponsored exhibits as well. The ALA reserves the right to reject works that are deemed unacceptable.

I, (please print name) _____, agree to the terms and conditions of the 2021 ALA Members' Show Prospectus.
